5. Requests

CHAPTER 3 PAIA AS AMENDED BY POPIA

- Insofar as the Promotion of Access to Information Act is concerned:

5.1. PAIA Requests

“PAIA requests” are requests for access to any information held by us, whether that information is “personal information” in terms of POPIA or not. Access to information is not a right in itself, but may only be requested if that information is required for the exercise or protection of other rights (section 50 PAIA).

5.2. Form of request

A request to access to a record held by Lapalala Wilderness School must be made by means of a duly completed Form C (which may be downloaded here: justice.gov.za/forms/form_paia.htm) and sent to us by post, email or fax (section 53 PAIA).

Your request must be accompanied by:-

- (a) sufficient particulars to enable us to identify- (i) the record(s) requested; and (ii) the requester;
- (b) an indication of which form of access is required;
- (c) your postal address or fax number in South Africa, or any other manner you wish to be informed of the decision on the request;
- (d) the identification of the right you are seeking to exercise or protect;
- (e) an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right; and
- (f) if the request is made on behalf of a person, proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the head.

5.3. Fees

Anyone, other than a personal requester (this is a requester seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester), who makes a request for access will be required to pay the prescribed request fee (if any) before the request is further processed. A deposit of one third of the access fee may be required from a requester, other than a personal requester, if the search and preparation of the requested record requires more than the hours prescribed for this purpose.

5.4. Refusal

We may refuse access to a record held by us in terms of Chapter 4 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, including when access would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party (including deceased persons) (section 63), or when access would be in contravention of our mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party as specified in section 68 (section 64), of our mandatory protection of certain confidential information of third party (section 65), of our mandatory protection of safety of individuals, and protection of property (section 66), of our mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings (section 67) or of our mandatory protection of research information of third party, and protection of research information of private body (section 69).

5.5. Appeal

A requester may lodge an internal appeal against our decision in terms of Part 4, Chapter 1 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act.

- Insofar as the Protection of Personal Information Act is concerned:

5.6. POPIA requests

“POPIA requests” are requests made by data subjects about personal information we may or may not process about them. Data subjects do not need to show that they need access to their personal information in the exercise or protection of another right; POPIA establishes access to personal information about yourself as a right in itself.

Data subjects may request confirmation about whether or not we process personal information about them, access to that information, objection, amendments or destruction of the information.

5.7. Form of request

Section 25 POPIA stipulates that all data subject requests must be made compliant with section 53 PAIA. This implies that all requests must contain at least:

- (a) sufficient particulars to enable us to identify- (i) the record(s) requested; and (ii) the requester;
- (b) an indication of which form of access is required;
- (c) your postal address or fax number in South Africa, or any other manner you wish to be informed of the decision on the request;
- (d) the identification of the right you are seeking to exercise or protect;

- (e) an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right; and
- (f) if the request is made on behalf of a person, proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the head.

5.8. Request for correction

Section 24(1) of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013,

6. Complaints

- Insofar as the Promotion of Access to Information Act is concerned:

You may within 180 days of our decision in relation to your access to a record held by us, submit a complaint to the Information Regulator in the prescribed manner and form for appropriate relief. You may only submit a complaint to the Information Regulator after you have exhausted our internal appeal procedure. (section 77A PAIA as amended by POPIA)

- Insofar as the Protection of Personal Information Act is concerned:

In terms of section 74 POPIA, any person may submit a complaint to the Information Regulator in writing, in the prescribed manner and form (download Form 5 from www.onlinebrandambassadors.com/popia/), alleging interference with the protection of your (or someone else's) personal information. "Interference" means any breach of the conditions for the lawful processing of personal information as referred to in Chapter 3 of POPIA, non-compliance with sections 22, 54, 69, 70, 71 or 72 POPIA; or a breach of the provisions of a code of conduct issued in terms of section 60 POPIA. In terms of section 99 POPIA, you, or at your request, the Information Regulator, may institute a civil action for damages for breach of any provision of POPIA as referred to in section 73, whether or not there is intent or negligence on our part.
